

Associate Diploma (Performance)

A.Dip.SCSM (Performance)

General Information

The Associate Diploma of the St. Cecilia School of Music represents a high level of musicianship and technical skill. The requirements, whilst not as demanding as the Licentiate Diploma of the St. Cecilia School of Music, are still a reflection of careful preparation, a mature musical awareness and a high degree of technical mastery. Whilst not compulsory, credit will be given for performances from memory. Appropriate performance dress, as for a formal recital, is expected. There are no numerical marks for this examination. The result will be assessed as either (a) Pass (b) Pass with Honours or (c) Not Diploma Standard.

Associate Diploma Requirements

The examination comprises two sections. Both sections must be successfully completed in order to receive the Associate Diploma of the St. Cecilia School of Music.

SECTION 1: (Recital)

The candidate must design and perform a balanced and interesting programme of at least four items with a total duration of between 30-35 minutes. As a general guide, the works chosen must demonstrate a level of proficiency which would be expected at a concert performance. Care should be taken that chosen works are not already listed in the grade syllabus. One item of the programme may be the candidate's own composition (of equivalent standard to the other works in the programme). All music performed must be brought to the examination for the examiner's reference.

SECTION 2: (Written Programme)

Upon entering the examination, the candidate will hand the examiner a printed programme which gives informative notes about the works chosen, background details of the composers, and interesting and relevant details which place the work in a significant position in the history and development of music. A full analysis of the chosen pieces is not required. Biographical details of the performer should be included. All copies must be professionally presented - preferably computer printed. Candidates who choose their own composition as part of the Associate Diploma must supply detailed notes on the structure, background and purpose of the work.

A successful candidate receives a St. Cecilia Associate Diploma certificate and is entitled to wear the St. Cecilia academic gown as well as append the post nominal letters A.Dip.SCSM (Perf).
